

Sir:

I enjoy the NJ "do not call" rules. I don't recall an unsolicited phone call since its implementation. I will never ever do business with phone callers. If you nullify the NJ do not call rules, I will organize my fellow New Jerseyites and inundate your office with phone calls, e-mails and snail mail. Turn about is fair play.

Take care,
Michael Bogner